

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

EARL SLEDGE,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 06-14961
Honorable Patrick J. Duggan

DAIMLERCHRYSLER, INC. and HUGH SCOTT,

Defendants.

_____ /

ORDER LIFTING STAY

At a session of said Court, held in the U.S.
District Courthouse, Eastern District of Michigan, on October 29, 2007.

PRESENT: THE HONORABLE PATRICK J. DUGGAN
U.S. DISTRICT COURT JUDGE

On May 24, 2007, this Court stayed the above-entitled action for 90 days to provide the bankruptcy court the opportunity to rule on Plaintiff's motion to reopen his bankruptcy case and for the bankruptcy trustee, Homer W. McClarty, to decide whether to abandon Plaintiff's claim against Defendants or seek to intervene in this matter.

On May 30, 2007, the bankruptcy court entered an order reopening Plaintiff's bankruptcy case. In response to a letter Mr. McClarty sent to the Court on July 26, 2007, indicating that he needed more time to review the merits of Plaintiff's claim against Defendants in this matter, the Court entered an order on August 6, 2007, extending the stay until October 1, 2007. On October 11, 2007, Mr. McClarty sent a letter to this Court, indicating that he intends to abandon whatever interest Plaintiff's bankruptcy estate may have in the pending lawsuit. The Court therefore finds no reason why the pending lawsuit cannot proceed.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED, that the stay in this matter is LIFTED.
